HARRISON'S PERISTALTIC LOZENGES;
AN APPROVED REMEDY FOR COSTIVENESS AND DYSPEPSIA
THIS medicine is not put forth as a universal nostrum, calculated to cure all the diseases incident to humanity, but rather as a means of preventing them It may safely be stated that nine tenths of the most serious maladies arise from an unhealthy action of the stomach and bowels or liver, inducing as a natural consequence indigestion and its results, such as head ache, acidity of the stomach, heart burn, flatulency, nausea, lowness of spirits jaundice and a whole catalogue of other complaints, which may be entirely removed by a timely and persevering use of this remedy
The most cogent objection to Aperients in general is, that containing some drastic purgative, they have after the operation has ceased a torpidity of the stomach and bowels producing consequences which their administration was intended to correct Such effects will not follow the use of these Lozenges
TO FEMALES IN DELICATE HEALTH
The Peristaltic Lozenges are strongly recommended to the notice of every Lady, having obtained the sanction and approbation of several eminent gentlemen of the Medical Profession, as a safe and valuable medicine in removing obstructions and relieving all other inconveniences to which the female frame is liable especially those which arise at an early period of life from want of exercise and general debility of the system—They create an appetite, correct indigestion remove giddiness and nervous head ache, and are eminently useful in windy disorders pains in the stomach shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart Being perfectly innocent they can be taken at any time and under any circumstances The most delicate females when an aperient is required may have recourse to them and they will act as a preventive against those nervous and hysterical affections which so frequently arise from continued constipation
TO SEAFARING PEOPLE AND TRAVELLERS GENERALLY
Individuals traveling more particularly seafaring persons when from change of habit or climate, the liver and bowels become inactive and costiveness follows as an invariable result, these Lozenges will prove invaluable One individual writes, I consider myself cured of costiveness, to which I was always subject the moment I left the land solely by the use of your medicine" The proprietor is continually receiving orders from his seafaring friends for the Lozenges When they are to be carried to sea, they ought always to be started from the box in which they are packed and put into tight bottles In this way they may be kept good for any length of time
The proprietor offers them as a cure for nervous head ache and general neuralgic affections Very remarkable cures might be published if thought necessary
Mr Millian, the agent in New York, writes "I think it no longer necessary to advertise to the extent, as heretofore, the Lozenges are now well known I am daily receiving the most satisfactory accounts of them, and I shall always recommend them to my customers"
The very questionable reputation which a medicine derives from the fashionable practice of publishing a long list of certificates from persons whom nobody knows has induced the proprietor to forego the opportunity of offering to the public the many commendatory which he is daily receiving of these Lozenges trusting rather to their own merits, which will be apparent to all on trial and the respectability of his numerous agents
These Lozenges have been in use for two years the general approbation they have met with from our first families establishes their merits and makes further remarks unnecessary They are packed in boxes which may be carried in the pocket and sold at fifty cents per box
For sale in Bangor by George W Holden and Whittier & Guild. Eastport, John Beckford Hallowell, Samuel Adams and F Scammon Augusta Pappan & Ladd Gardiner A T Perkins Portland, Joshua Durgin and Artemas Carter,

At the same places as the above may be had
HARRISON'S PILE REMEDY,
Warranted as specific in all cases
Hæmorrhoids, or the Piles are occasioned by habitual costiveness plethora, hard riding on horse back and not unfrequently by the use of aloetic purgatives The popular nostrum known as 'Vegetable Pills,' 'Universal Pills' and the like are highly injurious when taken for a long time being composed chiefly of aloes, which ought never to be taken by persons subject to Piles
This complaint is not necessarily and of itself immediately dangerous, in fact in some instances it may be considered as a salutary evacuation especially in plethoric or full blooded persons but when suffered to remain long it is the cause of many serious and even hazardous diseases
The remedy now offered to the public, is prepared by the undersigned from the recipe of a highly eminent practitioner in a neighboring city and from the numerous cases absolutely cured by the use of it, he feels warranted in offering it as a specific
It is put up in packages at fifty cents with full directions for use, accompanied by a plain treatise on the disease Prepared and for sale by
J S HARRISON, 256 Essex St Salem

BANGOR WHIG.

TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1839.

☞ Many commanders of vessels from the United States have had occasion to complain of the meanness and rascality of the United States Consul at Havana. These complaints have been both loud and deep, but as yet no movement has been made to appoint another, and a better man, to the station This Trist, for that is the Consul's name, has probably performed some political jobs for the powers that be, and must have his share of the spoils, as a reward And it is almost useless to expect or hope that the offices in the gift of the country shall be considered of any other use than to reward reckless partizans so long as the present party remain in power The President travels in royal state to secure votes to himself, and from the highest down to the lowest offices in the general Government, the object seems to be, not to discharge duties to the country, but to hold on to places, by the machinery of party

Late intelligence from Havana represents that the Consul there abuses the high trust committed to his charge and instead of endeavoring to suppress, actually encourages the foreign slave trade, and that too, by evading the laws of Congress, which he should endeavor to enforce

At home and abroad, and wherever locofoism rules, disgrace and ruin mark its footsteps The motive, to rule or ruin, is bad enough, to rule and ruin is worse.

☞ A very complimentary notice to American Mechanics appears in the fact that Captain Pepin with Lieutenant Sharvabien both of the Russian Naval Engineer service, are visiting the States on the Ohio and Mississippi, in order to make themselves acquainted with the steamboat navigation on these waters The United States Snag boat, for removing snags from the rivers, engaged their attention, and of which they made a drawing in expectation that such a boat might be useful on some of the Russian rivers.

It is also stated that the locomotive made by Mr Norris of Philadelphia by order of the directors of the Birmingham railroad in England has succeeded to admiration and more than performed the conditions required beating all John Bull's locos so decidedly as to result in a call for eight more of the same pattern At this rate brother Jonathan is fast gaining on the old world in the triumph of the arts

Mr Clay's Reception at Buffalo Mr Clay, agreeably to the invitation of citizens, visited Buffalo on Wednesday the 17th instant, and was received with every demonstration of respect due to his high character and distinguished public services As it was understood that Mr Clay wished to avoid all pomp and parade thro the whole of his tour, the arrangements for his reception were made to respond to his wishes

A procession of about sixty eight carriages, containing the members of the city government and citizens, preceded by a cavalcade of about sixty, met him at Black Rock, and escorted him to the city. Mr. Clay rode to the city in a barouche, accompanied by General Porter After passing through the principal streets to the Park the Recorder, Mr Stow addressed Mr Clay in an appropriate speech, to which he replied, says the Advertiser, 'in a speech of twenty or thirty minutes, alluding in the commencement, most eloquently to the events of the last war, as connected with the Niagara frontier, passing a brief review of the history of this region since that period, and touching in the course of his remarks, upon internal improvements, the tariff and the 'compromise''

New York Money Market The New York Express states that an arrangement has been made for the redemption of Safety Fund bills from and after the 27th July instant, by the Bank of the State of New York, the Merchants' Exchange Bank, and the Leather Manufacturers' Bank This, in every point of view, says the Express, is an important arrangement, and important not only for New York, but for all the Banks of the United States, for discredit and suspicion began to attach itself to our Safety Fund Banks, there is no knowing where it would stop for such discredit and suspicion, though without the least cause, led in part to the end of the long struggle in the spring of the suspension Co operation and confidence, the one in the other, are of the utmost importance now to all Banks and we are most happy to learn that the arrangements both of the New and Old Banks show such Co operation to exist

The money market continues tight Good business paper of some kinds command a very high rate of interest, and some merchants buy their own notes at one per cent, or one and a quarter per cent a month They who are in absolute want of money are compelled to make larger sacrifices It is fortunate however, that the demand for money is not, as compared with other times, very great Falling markets of almost all articles of produce, domestic and foreign, necessarily lessen the quantity of business paper founded on them, as well as make less money answer the old purpose

NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY It is stated that Mr Featherstonhaugh, who has recently made a geological survey for our government in the Western States, and returned to England last winter, has received the appointment of geologist to the commission about to be organized on the north eastern boundary.

☞ A Convention of the Whigs of Kennebec is to be holen on the 14th of August, to nominate suitable candidates for State and County officers

'I patronise that paper, is the expression which is getting out of fashion 'I pay for that paper, is becoming much the more common one Judge Morton, so long a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, is about to become a candidate again. He means to electioneer upon the ground of his opposition to the temperance law He intends riding into office as pride of a whiskey barrel A captain of a privateer who had been in an engagement, wrote to the owners, acquainting them that he had received but little damage, having only one of his hands wounded in the nose A debtor observed to a creditor, that it was not his interest to pay the principal, nor his principle to pay the interest An honest Irishman, fresh from Hibernia, caugh a humble bee in his hand, supposing it to be a humming bird 'Och he exclaimed, 'the devil burn me, how hot his little fut is' They have got a story in South Carolina, that the clergyman of an Episcopal Church in Mississippi killed the Clerk with a bowie knife, during the service, for giving out, 'Oh! 'tis a joyful sound,' immediately after the clergyman had announced his intention of going to Texas Anticipating difficulties and brooding over misfortunes, can have no other effect than that of aggravating the evils we wish to avoid 'It's of no use to cry for spilt milk' The New Orleans Times states that J W Moore, editor and proprietor of the Red River Whig printed at Alexandria (La) was shot dead in the street by King Holson, who was connected with the office of the Republican Newspaper warfare was the ground of the quarrel Holson, it appears challenged Moore, who refused to fight, because Holson was no gentleman Holson met him soon afterwards, and shot him down without ceremony Not long since we expressed our sympathy for an old Irish woman old and very poor who in addition to her other misfortunes, had lately lost her teeth 'Time for me to lose 'em, when I've nothing for 'em to do,' she replied The Chicago American of the 6th instant, says the story of the assassination of Keokuck, by young Black Hawk is an entire fabrication To use the democrats and live among the aristocracy to preach one doctrine and practice another, is nothing new to Mr Van Buren A patent shingle machine in operation at New Brunswick, N J turns off 10,000 per day The proprietor has a process of infusing alkali into chesnut which makes it as durable against iron rust as cedar Liberia papers to May have been received at Philadelphia The natives have made several attacks on the colonists and plundered their farms, killing three or four persons as is reported Some distress prevailed in consequence of these depredations The August elections in the South and West, wear a bright aspect for the good cause Let but New York stand firm, and the country is saved The United States schooner Boxer, Lieutenant Nicholson, was to leave Mazatlin (Pacific) in July, direct for Valparaiso and New York The Peru and Bolivian confederacy is dissolved, and Gamatra is again President of Peru The Chilians have possession of the castles of Callao, and indeed of all Peru The moment that it was ascertained that gold was scarce in England, and might be scarce in this country, the order was given to the receivers in Illinois to demand gold or silver Put the screws on the Bank, says Mr Benton, and make them suspend again, and then the Sub treasury is safe On his death bed, a distinguished humorist requested that no one might be invited to his funeral, 'because, sobbed out the dying man, 'it is a civility I can never repay' The Honorable Henry A Wise is at Baltimore spending a few days.

"Eastward, the Star, &c We notice in the Essex Gazette that a number of young men have formed themselves into a company for the purpose of collecting information preparatory to emigrating to the Aroostook territory An advertisement has been published in the Gazette calling a meeting of the company This beautiful valley, destined to become the garden of our State, is filling up rapidly We learn that quite a number of enterprising persons have migrated there the present season

☞ The New England fishermen have in years past pursued schools of mackerel so diligently with the bob hook that they have become shy, and determined to hold no further intercourse But what can simple headed mackerel do against a Cape Cod fisherman? A new tacle has been invented by which a hundred barrels of mackerel can be taken from a school without waiting for a disposition in them, to bite Furnish salt, barrels and a good market, and all the fish in the Atlantic will be used up by the Cape Codders in short metre.

☞ Dr Holmes of the Maine Farmer, would thank any one to tell him the origin, habits and end of the "striped bug" that has been found so great a pest to squash and cucumber vines We have in years past, suffered much damage by the ravages of these bugs upon our squash and other vines, but the last and the present, we have not seen one in our garden The present season in particular, not an insect has marred a leaf of either squash or cucumber vines within our enclosure, and we have some dozen hills of each Can the doctor explain this matter to us? There has been no difference in our method of cultivation, except in the use of lime, of this we now use at the rate of four hundred bushels to the acre

"BROTHER JONATHAN," is the quere title of a mammouth sheet published weekly in the city of New York and edited by Park Benjamin It is a miscellaneous paper and filled with an ocean of good reading matter, suited to all tastes

THE CHARACTER OF WASHINGTON

The following beautiful speech was made by Senator Robbins of Rhode Island, at a dinner at Mr Webster's in Washington during the session of 1837 8 It was near the birth day of Washington and Mr Robbins being called on for a toast, offered the remarks which follow They were written out at the time and given to the Editors of the Intelligencer for publication, but the manuscript got mislaid, and could not be found till a few days since

On the near approach of that calendar day which gave birth to WASHINGTON, I feel rekindling within me some of those emotions always connected with the recollection of that hallowed name Permit me to indulge them, on this occasion, for a moment, in a few remarks, as preliminary to a sentiment which I shall beg leave to propose

I consider it as one of the consolations of my age that I am old enough and fortunate enough to have seen that wonderful man This happiness is still common to so many yet among the living, that less is thought of it now than will be in after times but it is no less a happiness to me on that account

While a boy at school, I saw him for the first time, it was when he was passing through New England to take the command in chief of the American armies at Cambridge Never shall I forget the impression his imposing presence then made upon my young imagination, so superior did he seem to me to all that I had seen or imagined of the human form for striking effect. I remember with what delight in my after studies, I came to the line in Virgil that expressed all the enthusiasm of my own feelings, as inspired by that presence, and which I could not often enough repeat

"Credo equidem, nec varafides, genas esse deorum"

I saw him again at his interview with Rochambeau, when they met to settle the plan of combined operations between the French fleet and the American armies, against the British on the Chesapeake, and then I saw the immense crowd drawn together from all the neighboring towns, to get, if possible, one look at the man who had throned himself in every heart Not one of that immense crowd doubted the final triumph of his country in her arduous conflict, for every one saw, or thought he saw, in Washington, her guardian angel, commissioned by Heaven to insure her that triumph Nil desperandum was the motto with every one

"Nil desperandum, Teucroduce, auspice Teucro"

In after life, when the judgement corrects the extravagence of early impressions, I saw him on several occasions, but saw nothing at either to admonish me of any extravagance in my early impression The impression was still the same, I had the same overpowering sense of being in the presence of some superior being

It is indeed remarkable, and I believe unique in the history of men, that WASHINGTON made the same impression upon all minds at all places and at once When his fame first broke upon the world, it spread at once over the whole world By the consent of mankind by the universal sentiment he was placed at the head of the human species, above all envy, because above all emulation for no one then pretended or has pretended to be at least who has been allowed to be the co-rival of WASHINGTON in fame

When the great FREDERICK of Prussia sent his portrait to WASHINGTON, with this inscription upon it, "From the oldest General in Europe to the greatest General in the world, he did but echo the sentiment of all the chivalry of Europe Nor was the sentiment confined to Europe nor to the bounds of civilization for the Arab of the Desert talked of WASHINGTON in his tent, his name wandered with the wandering Scythian, and was cherished by him as a household word in all his migrations No clime was so barbarous as to be a stranger to the name, but every where, and by all men, that name was placed at the same point of elevation, and have conpeer As it was in the beginning, so it is now, of the future we cannot speak with certainty. Some future age, in the endless revolutions of time, may produce another WASHINGTON, but the greater probability is that he is destined to remain forever, as he now is the Phenix of human kind

What posession to his country is such a fame! Such a

"Clarum et venerabile nomen
"Gentibus"

To all his countrymen it gives, and forever will give, a passport to respect wherever they go, to whatever part of the globe for his country is in every other identified with that fame

What, then, is incumbent upon us, his countrymen? Why, to be such a People as shall be worthy of such a fame a People of whom it shall be said, "No wondor such a People have produced such a man as WASHINGTON I give you, therefore, this sentiment.

The memory of WASHINGTON, May his countrymen prove themselves a People worthy of his fame.

ARISTOCRATIC FEELINGS There is a fretfulness about every man's position with us which is positively frightful He is never easy, for there is always some little line of demarkation between him and his neighbor which he toils to pass over The aristocracy descends through every link from the golden to the copper, of the country The Duke of Devon is not more exclusive than the Duke's poulterer Society is a long series of uprising ridges, which from the first to the last, offer no valley of repose Wherever you take your stand, you are looked down upon by those above you, and reviled and pelted by those below you Every creature your see is a farthing Sisiphus pushing his little stone up some Lilliputian mole-hill This is our world.

SCRAPING ACQUAINTANCE A person who had drank too much the other night, in New Orleans, was placed before Recorder Baldwin of that city the following morning

'You were drunk last night said the Recorder 'You're right for once said the prisoner 'I shall send you for thirty days said the Recorder 'Oh don't said the prisoner 'I will said the Recorder 'I'm a printer said the prisoner 'Are you' said the Recorder 'I am so' said the prisoner 'We invited you, you know, to our anniversary dinner?' 'So you did' said the Recorder 'How did you like that ham?' asked the prisoner 'It was excellent said the Recorder 'And the wine?' asked the prisoner 'That was better yet said the Recorder 'And the toast so complimentary to you?' asked the prisoner, with a smile 'That was better than all' said the Recorder 'I know who wrote the toast' said the prisoner 'You may go' said the Recorder

Mrs Elizabeth Meigs, of New Britain, Conn a lady 84 years of age, during the year 1838, knit 48 pairs of stockings and footed up ten pairs besides knitting seven pair of mittens, and two nightcaps She also during the same time, pieced two bed quilts one of which contained 2601 pieces of one and a half inch square; all of which was done with her own hands, for her friends and needy acquaintances, without any compensation. Besides accomplishing such an amount of labor, she is in the habit of daily devoting an hour or two to reading Transcript.

An Apparition The Montreal Transcript relates the following instance of a supernatural visitation, which comes from so respectable a source that it is inclined to credit it, notwithstanding the skepticism with which it formerly regarded such tales The following is the second visitation which the lady received from the spirit of her deceased husband

On Tuesday night, feeling stronger and in better spirits than she had enjoyed for several months past, Mrs dispensed with the presence of her attendant, retiring alone to her chamber and went to bed a little before 10 o'clock Exactly as the clock struck 12 she awoke from her sleep, and distinctly beheld the apparition she had before seen, advancing from the table, (on which stood her night lamp,) till it stood opposite to and drew aside the curtains of her bed A sudden and overpowering oppression deprived her of all power to scream aloud She described her very blood as retreating with icy chillness to her heart from every vein The countenance of her beloved in life wore not its benevolent aspect, the eyes, once beaming with affection, were now fixed in stern regard on the trembling, half dissolved being who, with the courage of desperation, thus abjured him "Charles, dear Charles! why are you come again? "Jessie, slowly and solemnly aspirated the shadowy form, waving in its hand a small piece of written paper, 'Jessie, pay my newspaper account, and let me rest in peace!'

SINGULAR GAMBLING MACHINE In renovating a house on Camp street not long since, a curious contrivance was discovered for cheating at cards In a back room in the second story was a round table fixed in iron shoes so as to be immovable Two of the legs of this table were hollow Down the hollow legs wires were run to the floor, and along the floor in grooves made for the purpose, to the wall, then up the wall, to the third story, thence to a point immediately above the centre of the table The wires were communicated from the point above in the manner used in bell hanging The grooves through which they run were plaid with the softest buck skin, so as to prevent a noise in pulling them, the grooves were then covered over with thin copper and a carpet screened all from view the grooves in the wall were papered over so as to prevent detection Immediately above the card table the ceiling was ornamented with a circular painting, after the fashion of some parlors In the centre of the painting was a hook as if to suspend a lamp Small holes were cut in the ceiling which could not be detected from below, because they represented certain portions of the figures of the painting When a party was engaged at play, a person above could look down upon the hands, and by pulling the wires give his partner at the table any intimation as to the strength of the opposing hands which an agreed signal might indicate The room above was kept dark, which also prevented the players from ascertaining the cheat, particularly at night

The house was formerly occupied by a person who professed to be a commission merchant The clerks in the establishment, we understand, were not allowed access to the card room or the room above The former proprietor left the city some time since, and so cunningly was the whole contrived that it was not until the house was overhauled for repair, that the ingenious device for swindling was discovered. A STATE PRISON STORY James Medlar, an old burglar, played the following cute trick at Sing Sing, on Saturday the 14th The shop he had been working in being closed, he was employed near the river A canal boat laying close along side, Medlar conceived the idea of escaping To effect this he pushed onboard the canal boat, and without ceremony darting below, doffed his prison robes and rigged himself out in a new suit of the canal boat captain's Thus attired he boldly passed the guard, and freed from all restraint, went merrily on his way The captain of the canal boat unfortunately put on the jacket the convict had left behind, and its form being recognized by the prison guard, the unfortunate captain was detained as a convict endeavoring to escape Matters were presently explained, and a pursuit made after the real convict, who forgetful of his new position, was carousing at Yonkers Here he was arrested and conveyed to his old quarters, to the great joy of the canal boat captain, and his own sorrow

The Nantucket Inquirer ably treats of the United States Circular against the Whale ships, and openly declares its belief that the object was to enrich the robbed Treasury office holders with a bonus of six millions of dollars, which would be the amount of forfeiture of cargo and ship of the "foreign denationalized" vessels, manned by hardy and gallant whalemen now out A vessel in fact has recently arrived at Nantucket, and been virtually confiscated, as we learn, from the same paper, under the Imperial Ukase of our loco foco spoils administration So we go 'Perish Commerce' Perish Credit'!

CANCER Mr Thomas Tyrrel of Missouri, says he has effectually cured himself of an obstinate cancer by the free use of 'potash made of the ashes of the red oak boiled to the consistence of molasses, and applied as a poultice, covering the whole with a coat of tar' Two or three applications, he says, will remove all protuberances, after which it is only necessary to heal the wound with common salve This is a cheap and easy remedy, the efficacy of which should be tested by those afflicted with the disease, which has hitherto baffled all the arts of medicine Carlisle Expositor

'Help and give willingly, when you have any thing, and think not the more of your self, and if you have nothing, keep the cup of cold water always at hand, and think none the less of yourself Claudius

The whole law of charity in four lines! Let it circulate Read aright, and it will do us more good than an essay on the Sub treasury Its blessed influence will abide in the heart, and rest like soft lights on our spirits Here are two other drops from the same fount worth a a year's subscription, seeing its only six dollars

'Think often on sacred things, and be certain that all shall not be labor without profit, and let the leven leven the whole lump'

'It is easy to despise to understand is much better'

There, enough for once Let us take care gentle reader, while we are learning a little of all manner of outward things, not to mistake knowledge for 'wisdom;' and for this end, bear in mind the words of old Baxter 'Keep open the passage betwixt the head and the heart'

VALUABLE CERTIFICATES. EVAN'S CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS THE DIFFERENCE.

It cannot be denied that whilst many medicines which are recommended to the public have not even the negative merit of harmlessness there are others which it would be great injustice indeed, and suicidal prejudice to involve untried in a common condemnation And when a medicine comes endorsed with all the great names that have adorned the annals of the medical profession, and warranted by the seal and signature of long and uniform success, its proprietor makes no unreasonable demand upon the public confidence, when he claims for it a superior consideration

The Camomile Preparation by Dr Wm Evans is undeniably entitled to this enviable distinction for whilst no medical authority in existence condemns it, every medical practitioner that is acquainted with it, freely acknowledges its pre-eminent virtues and that the latter should do so in opposition to their personal interests, must be attributed either to their candor and love of truth, or to their unwillingness to fly in the face of all observation and the testimony of thousands

Dr W Evans does not pretend that his Camomile Tonic Pills will cure all diseases He frankly and conscientiously admits that they will not He lays no claim to the discovery of the 'Philosopher's Stone" and wishes nobody to believe that he sells the 'Elixir of Life," but he does say and he does believe and he can prove, that in debility and impaired constitution, in Nervous diseases of all kinds; in weakness of the digestive organs, in incipient consumptions, whether of the lungs or the liver, in the dreadful debility occasioned by the use of purgatives; in palsy, rheumatism, (more especially) in the sickness incident to mothers, and females of relaxed nerves, in every case of delirium tremens, or that disease which is brought on by intemperance, in the wretched horrors of body and mind which accrue from occasional inebriety, loss of appetite, langor, melancholy, pains in the head limbs, or side, in corrupt sallow, and uncomely complexion caused by the bad state of the fluids in all these cases, and in others mentioned in the bills of directions given with his medicines HE DOES SAY, that the Camomile Tonic Pills, interchanged occasionally with his Aperient Family Pills, (the best known) which are sold with them, will effect immediate relief, and if used but for a fair period of trial a perfect cure This much is placed beyond a doubt by daily testimonies which would be given on oath, and for this much Dr W Evans can conscientiously request confidence He therefore need only add that his Camomile Tonic Pills, together with his excellent Family Aperient Pills can be obtained wholesale or retail at No. 7 Division street near Chatham square N York, and his authorized agents in town and country

Other and more conclusive demonstrations of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Camomile Preparation and Aperient Medicines are submitted by the following important and extraordinary cures effected by their highly medicinal qualities, all of which may be seen at Dr. Wm Evans' Medical Office No 7 Division street One or two of these he herewith respectfully gives to a discriminating public

Dr Wm Evans Sir be pleased to receive the thanks of one who has been a great sufferer for several years, for the great benefits she has received from the virtues of your inestimable Camomile Pills She has suffered with pain and distress in the head a lightness across the head a lightness across the stomach shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart, exercise would almost overcome her, but since using your Camomile Tonic Pills, her complaints are removed she is able to exercise without fatigue, and she is happy to say, can enjoy life comfortably again

Dr Wm Evans

Extract of a letter from Jonas Snyder, Postmaster Knoxville, Pa. to Dr Wm Evans Among several cases an elderly lady who had been 20 yrs afflicted with nervous hypochondria, debility &c that for the last 3 years she constantly received medical aid from a respectable physician but the pressure and pain on her heart and breast and especially in her left side, remained immovable, attended at long intervals with weakness in her limbs and on her mind keeping her discouraged to undertake any thing In May she commenced using Dr W Evans' Camomile and Family Aperient Pills, according to the direction accompanying them A reaction took place, the pains and pressure in her body were removed, her mind became clear and strong, her spirits perfectly good and up to this time in all respects restored to health which for the last 10 years she has not enjoyed

Sept 2 1836 JONAS SNYDER.

ON LOW SPIRITS Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined Ancient writers supposed this disease to be confined to those parts of the abdomen technically called by anatomists the hypochondria, which are situated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondriasis

SYMPTOMS The common corporeal symptoms are flatulency in the stomach or bowels acrid eructations, costiveness spasmodic pains, giddiness, dimness of sight palpitations and often an uncertainty of having the attention upon any subject of importance or engaging in any thing that demands vigor or courage A sort of guilt, the mind becomes irritable, though the corresponding melancholy and dejection seldom, if ever, with a total derangement of the nervous system The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that both terrify the imagination and overwhelm the judgment exhibit an infinite diversity The wisest and best of men are as prone to this affliction as the weakest

CAUSES A sedentary life of any kind, especially a secret study protracted to a late hour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse or exercise, a dissolute habit great excess in eating and drinking, the immoderate use of mercury, violent purgatives the suppression of some habitual discharge or long continued eruption, relaxation or debility of one or more important organs with a abdomen is frequent cause

TREATMENT The principal objects of treatment are to remove indigestion to strengthen the body and to elevate the spirits which may be promoted by exercise early hours regular meals and pleasant conversation The bowels (if costive) being carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient We know nothing better calculated to obtain this end, than Dr Wm Evans' Aperient Pills—being mild and certain in their operation The bowels being once cleansed his inestimable Camomile Pills (which are tonic anodyne & anti spasmodic) are an infallible remedy & without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public

Some physicians have recommended a free use of mercury but it should not be resorted to, as in many cases it will greatly aggravate symptoms

LEONARD'S ARITHMETIC—JUST PUBLISHED.

A Practical Treatise on ARITHMETIC, wherein every principle taught is explained in a simple and obvious manner; containing Numerous Questions, and combining the useful properties of former works with the modern improvements Being a COMPLETE SYSTEM in one book To which is added a Description of BOOK KEEPING, with numerous Examples for Practice By GEORGE LEONARD, Jr

THE Work commences in a very simple manner so as to be completely understood by the most moderate capacity, having no previous knowledge of the subject It advances by regular and almost imperceptible gradations, from the easy and obvious to the more difficult parts; rendering the labors of the scholar agreeable and amusing, and saving the teacher much trouble and vexation The reason of every rule is made evident either by questions which lead the scholar to discover its truth, or by short, simple, and lucid explanations

The articles are arranged in a more natural order than that usually employed, so that the operations in many subjects are performed by merely applying preceding principles without any new rule As soon as any principle is explained it is of en employed in succeeding parts of the work, thereby recalling it fixing it in the mind, and showing its practical application

There is no superficial or mutilated account of any subject, all that is important concerning it is given; nothing is to guess, nor only within the bounds usually employed, but often so as to enhance the simplicity of the work

The subject of Book Keeping will be found to be treated in a most useful and practical manner, for it contains not only the proper specimens and explanations but the scholar is required to form a book, and arrange in it transactions which are stated in a promiscuous manner

Copious Questions are placed at the bottom of each page They resemble their appropriate answers in phraseology whereby much time and trouble is saved the learner as well as the instructor

The simplicity of the work the regular gradation by which it proceeds from the easy and obvious parts to those which are more difficult combined with the numerous questions and the peculiar adaptation to their respective answers, render this Arithmetic superior for the purpose of Self Instruction—It is plain and practical and therefore well fitted for the Farmer and Mechanic No arithmetic contains more that is useful for the merchant or better adapted to his purpose, nor is the mode of reckoning and general plan ill suited to the Scientific or Literary Student

The work is printed in neat Boston school book style, on good paper and is well bound.

☞ We are very desirous that this Arithmetic should be examined by all interested in Education believing it will be found to be a superior work for Schools Academies, &c and also for Self-Instruction
